- 1.02 The Employer and the Union recognize that gaming is a unique part of the hospitality industry requiring the highest level of service and value to its customers. The Employer and the Union recognize that the success of the Employer and the job security of the employees depends upon the Employer's success in this regard.
- 1.03 The Employer and the Union recognize that the operation of Shorelines Casino Belleville is regulated by the Alcohol and Gaming Commission of Ontario (hereinafter referred to as the "A.G.C.O."), and maintaining the integrity and security of the industry is of paramount importance.
- 1.04 This Agreement sets forth the entire Agreement on pay, hours of work and other terms and conditions of employment. 2.02 Dual Rate Supervisors

The Employer may post for and select employees to be pre-qualified to act in the capacity of a Supervisor (Dual). This system will have regard to their seniority in the bargaining unit role. Dual Rate Supervisors' vacation pay calculation will be based on the ratio of time spent as a Dual.

A Dual Rate Supervisor, when requested to act in the capacity of a Supervisor while at work, shall remain in the Supervisor capacity for the balance of his or her shift.

Dual Rate Supervisors will be paid based on their bargaining unit hourly rate with an additional amount of pay established by the Employer for each hour worked in the Dual role and responsibilities. 13.01 The normal hours of work for all full-time employees shall be an eight (8) hour shift (exclusive of unpaid breaks) per day and the normal work week shall be five (5) days. The normal daily hours of work shall not be construed as a guarantee of any minimum number of hours. All full-time employees will be scheduled at least forty-eight (48) consecutive hours off work in every work week except in those emergency instances where there are no available non-overtime employees or where required for a rotational schedule changeover or subject to a negotiated work week agreement.

Should the Employer and the Union agree to establish a shift schedule or negotiated work week arrangement for any Department requiring regular shifts longer than eight (8) hours per day, the agreement, if so stated, will become an appendix to this agreement and will be enforceable as part of this Agreement.

13.02 The Employer will post the various working schedules in appropriate locations at least two (2) weeks in advance. The Employer will give at least forty-eight (48) hours of notice or as per ESA, whichever is greater, of its intent to change an employee's schedule, unless the change is approved by the affected employee or in case of an emergency or circumstance outside the control of the Employer.

13.03 Shift picks will be conducted once per calendar year no later than September each year and will take effect on the first full pay period of the following year. Where there are substantial changes to the schedule another shift pick will occur.

13.04 A shift schedule for part-time employees will be posted at least two (2) weeks prior to the commencement of the shift for that work already available and known to be required at the time of posting ("core schedule").

13.05 It is understood that the posted core part-time schedule is subject to change as shifts become available, are no longer required and/or are assigned. Following the posting of the core schedule part-time employees shall review the schedule and are required to check the schedule on an ongoing basis for any changes to their scheduled shifts. Where a part-time employee is not at work on the day the shift is posted nor scheduled again prior to the newly assigned shift, he or she will be called by the Employer. Employees must be available to receive such calls by maintaining a voice mail system or by returning calls on call display and failure to maintain such a system relieves the Employer of its obligations.

Where shifts become available after the core schedule has been posted but more than forty-eight hours prior to the start of the shift, the Employer will call employees on a seniority-rotation basis and offer these shifts. If no employees accept these shifts they will be assigned to the most junior employee within the same job classification, provided the shift does not incur overtime and allows for a minimum of eleven (11) hours between shifts.

Where shifts become available less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the start of the shift, the Employer will offer these shifts on a seniority-rotation. If the Employer is unable to make contact or the employee advises they are unavailable, the Employer will move to the next eligible employees.

NOTE: For Dealers, game knowledge may affect an employee's eligibility.

- 13.06 The available core hours will be distributed as equitably as possible amongst the part-time employees having regard to shift preference.

The part-time employees will each submit, and may amend once every four (4) months, a Shift Preference sheet indicating his or her preferred shift (days, afternoons, swing), preferred number of scheduled shifts, and preferred days off. These preferences sheets will be used in the assignment of core shifts by seniority. These preferences must be submitted one (1) month in advance of their implementation date. Implementation of preferences will occur on the first Monday of April, August and December.

13.07 Switching Shifts

With a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours notice prior to the shift, an employee can switch a shift with a co-worker in the same classification and with the same qualifications. The employees involved must submit the shift switch in accordance with the Employer's procedure for doing so. The Manager or designate may approve a shift switch with less than forty-eight (48) hours notice at his/her discretion where there are extenuating circumstances.

Part-time employees may regularly work in excess of twenty-four (24) hours per week when replacing employees on a shift switch.

- 13.08 The Employer will not be responsible or liable for overtime rate claims that might arise or occur as a result of the exchange of shifts. Employees will not be allowed to work consecutive shifts on the same day unless the employee had eleven (11) hours rest between shifts.

- (e) the shift is for an identical job in the same job classification;
- (f) a shift can only be given away a maximum of two (2) times, unless the Manager, or designate, approves.

Shift giveaways are not intended to be used in such a way as to result in a part-time employee regularly working forty (40) hours per week or regularly not working any hours in a pay period. An employee who abuses this provision shall have their shift giveaway privileges revoked for a period of three (3) months. Should the employee abuse this provision again, their shift giveaway privileges will be revoked.

The Employer shall not re-assign a shift to the employee who originated the initial shift giveaway in accordance with this Article 13.10.

The Manager, or designate, may approve a shift giveaway with a minimum of twelve (12) hours notice at his or her discretion.

The job posting will include the classification, department, and may include the starting shift and days off if known at the time of posting. It is understood that, in any event, the starting shift and schedule will be the remaining one following the shift schedule process in 17.01. When the Employer offers the position to the successful applicant, the Employer agrees to clearly communicate the shift package to the employee prior to the employee accepting the position. The Department Manager, or designate, may approve a vacation request with less than two (2) weeks notice at his/her discretion where there are extenuating circumstances.

Employees will be allowed to cancel approved vacation with two (2) weeks written notice and prior to the schedule being posted. Vacation can only be cancelled in the same manner as the vacation was originally selected (ie. blocks or individual days).

An employee, who has earned vacation dollars under the terms of this Article and retires, quits or is terminated, shall receive payment in lieu of vacation due such employee. In the case of death, such employee's authorized beneficiary or estate shall be entitled to such employee's payment in lieu of vacation.

Where an employee posts to a new position or where the departmental schedule changes, his or her vacation will be honoured where it can be done so without it impacting on the operation or other employee's previously booked vacation.

28.03 Death in Family During Vacation

An employee who, while on scheduled vacation becomes eligible for bereavement leave will be able to reschedule the vacation days affected by the bereavement leave. Such vacation will be taken at a time mutually agreeable to the Company and the employee.

ARTICLE 29 – PUBLIC AND PAID HOLIDAYS

29.01 The paid holidays recognized by the Employer will be as follows:

New Year's Day	Civic Holiday (1 st Monday in August)
Family Day	Labour Day
Good Friday	Thanksgiving Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

29.02 It is agreed and understood that given the nature of the Employer's operation, employees may be required to work on a holiday. Where an employee is scheduled to work on any one of the above-mentioned holidays, then in addition to any holiday pay he or she may qualify for, he or she shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half (1 ½) his or her base hourly rate, for all hours worked between 12.01 a.m. and 11.59 p.m. on the holiday.

29.03 In order to qualify for holiday pay, employees must work their last regularly scheduled day of work before and their first regularly scheduled day of work after the holiday, unless:

- (a) absent on vacation;
- (b) absent on either of those days and such absence is authorized by the Employer based on a medical certificate issued on the day of the absence by a qualified physician which is submitted to the Employer on the day the employee returns to work.

- (c) absent due to an emergency situation related to the employee or an immediate family member that arose on short notice and could not be addressed outside of working hours and provides such reasonable proof as may be required; and
- (d) employees who agree to, or are otherwise required to work on the paid holiday and fail, without meeting the requirements in paragraph 18.03 (b) or (c) above, to work their entire shift (unless an early out is authorized) on the paid holiday, will not be eligible for premium pay or holiday pay.

29.04 Holiday pay will be calculated in accordance with the current Employment Standards Act.

Employees who are scheduled to work on the public/paid holiday and are unable to do so due to illness will receive holiday pay in accordance with Employment Standards Act and may be required to provide medical documentation for the absence.

Where a holiday falls on a day when an employee is not scheduled to work or during an employee's vacation, and that employee otherwise qualifies for a paid holiday, then that employee shall be paid in accordance with the Employment Standards Act.

29.05 Religious Holidays

Employees are entitled to time off for Religious Holidays not otherwise covered in this Article. Up to two (2) days paid leave for full-time and up to two (2) days unpaid leave for part-time employees, for the purpose of observing religious holidays identified by leaders and representatives of each religion for their respective religion. Religious Holiday pay cannot be requested for holidays that fall on a regularly scheduled day off. Additional time off may also be accommodated by the use of vacation leave, accrued lieu time or an unpaid leave of absence, or by rearranging work schedules. Where requested, the employee will provide confirmation of his or her need for the holiday from his or her religious counsellor.

ARTICLE 30 - DISCIPLINE

30.01 The Employer will provide advance notice to the Union of any meeting with an employee where the Employer is investigating an issue that may result in discipline for that employee. A Union Steward or Committee Person will be able to attend this meeting. It is understood that the Union will not impede the Employer's ability to ascertain the facts.

When an employee is called to a meeting by the Employer where discipline or discharge will be imposed, the employee will have a Union Steward present. In the event of discipline, the interview will not proceed until a Union Representative is present and this provision is mandatory.

Where discipline or discharge is sent to an absent employee by letter rather than in person, the Union Representative will be provided with a copy of the letter.

30.02 A progressive disciplinary procedure will be followed as outlined below:

Stage 1 - Written Counsel

Stage 2 - Written Counsel

Stage 3 - Final/Written Counsel

Stage 4 - Termination of Employment

30.03 (a) Where discipline is sent to an absent employee by letter rather than in person, the Unit Chair will be provided with a copy of the letter.

(b) Coach and counsels and other daily supervisory corrections, which may or may not result in notes being maintained and/or placed in an employee's file, are not disciplinary and may not be grieved. These will be admissible at hearings only to demonstrate an awareness and understanding of the Employer's expectations, provided they have been issued in the last twelve (12) months.

(c) It is noted that not all communications will start at the coach and counsel stage. For some offences, one or more of the corrective counseling steps may be skipped.

(d) If applicable, an employee's signature on any disciplinary document does not constitute an acceptance of disciplinary measures, but only receipt of the written confirmation.

30.04 (a) Where an employee maintains a record free from discipline for a period of twelve (12) months, all records of discipline (save and except for serious misconduct or serious misconduct that has not been discounted for any, Company deemed, extenuating circumstances) will not be relied upon in future discipline. Discipline under the attendance management policy will be treated as a separate stream of discipline for the purposes of this provision except where the employee's disciplinary record cumulatively is such that the attendance discipline is a culminating incident. All records of discipline (save and except for serious misconduct) that will not be relied upon in future discipline will be removed from the employee's file after forty-eight (48) months.

(b) Serious misconduct includes but is not limited to:

- (i) A breach of the Ontario Human Rights Code
- (ii) Health and safety infractions threatening health
- (iii) Violence, swearing or threats of violence directed at a customer, co-worker or supervisor or other insubordination.

30.05 Where a dismissal is for theft, attempted theft, embezzlement or any other fraudulent actions (whether involving the Employer, coworkers or customers), the Employer must establish that the employee committed the offence and will do so on the basis of clear and cogent evidence. If it is established to an Arbitrator's satisfaction that the employee committed the offence then the dismissal shall be deemed to be for just cause and the arbitration board shall have no power to alter or substitute the penalty.

In discussions with the Union, the Employer may impose a disciplinary penalty short of discharge for an offence listed above, in light of the specific circumstances of the case and such penalty shall also not be subject to an Arbitrator's discretion. The imposition of such a penalty in one case shall not operate as a limit to management's discretion to impose the penalty of discharge in another case.

30.06 In circumstances where discipline results in a suspension or dismissal (or other discipline as may be agreed upon) being grieved, the Employer will permit the affected employee to review at the formal step meeting, any audio or video recording which the Employer intends to rely upon as evidence. This will be subject to any AGCO approvals or requirements as to the procedure to be followed for such a review. A Union Representative, if there is one at the meeting, will be able to review the surveillance report and meet with the employee using the report as a reference. The report will be returned following the meeting.

30.07 In the case of an investigative suspension, the Employer will have the right to suspend the employee, with pay. Such a suspension is not disciplinary. The Union will be notified of all investigative suspensions at the time of issuance. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if such suspension is the result of action involving a regulatory or law enforcement agency which results in an investigation of more than seven (7) days, such longer period shall be without pay.

ARTICLE 31 – GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

31.01 A grievance shall be defined as any difference or dispute between the Employer and the Union regarding the interpretation, application, or administration of this Agreement, including any questions as to whether a matter is arbitrable and an allegation that this Agreement has been violated.

The parties agree and acknowledge a grievance may also be a dispute about an employment related statute.

31.02 Employees who believe they have a grievance that is not a disciplinary suspension or termination should first take the matter up with their Supervisor within five (5) calendar days of the date on which the circumstances giving rise to the complaint became known or ought to have been known. Employees may be accompanied by their Steward or Committee Person if they so desire, when speaking to the Supervisor. In any event the Steward or Committee Person must discuss the grievance with the Employer's designated representative or the supervisor in the employee's area before the grievance is created. If the complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within four (4) calendar days after the above discussions have occurred, the grievance may then be filed as set out below:

Step 1

The Steward or Committee Person must initiate the formal grievance procedure by providing the signed form to the supervisor or Department Manager. The Supervisor or Department Manager shall respond with a decision in writing and will send it electronically to the Steward or Committee Person within five (5) calendar days after the date on which the grievance was activated.

Step 2

If the decision of the Supervisor/Manager is not satisfactory to the Committee Person, the Committee Person may appeal the decision of the Supervisor/Manager to the Human Resources Manager or designate, within five (5) calendar days after the Steward/Committee Person has received the decision of the Supervisor/Manager. The Manager, or designates, may convene a meeting with the applicable Committee Person within five (5) calendar days after receipt of the appeal. The Managers, or designates, shall respond with a decision to the applicable Committee Person within five (5) calendar days after the meeting. In putting forward the Step 2 appeal, the name of every affected employee who is seeking a remedy will be provided to the Employer.

Step 3

If the decision of the Human Resources manager or designate is not satisfactory to the Committee Person, the Committee Person may appeal the decision of the Supervisor/Manager to the General Manager or designate, within five (5) calendar days after the Committee Person has received the decision. If there is such an Appeal then a meeting will be held with General Manager or designates, within five (5) calendar days after receipt of the appeal. A National and/or Local Representative will be permitted to attend all Step 3 meetings. The Managers, or designates, shall respond with a decision to the applicable Committee Person within five (5) calendar days of the meeting.

- 31.03 A Group Grievance may be created by the Union where employees have identical grievances. Rather than file individual grievances, the Union will file a Group Grievance identifying the names of each of the affected employees by no later than the filing at Step 3.
- 31.04 A Policy Grievance is an unresolved issue arising directly between the Union and the Employer around the interpretation, application or administration of the collective agreement and is not a matter that could be brought as an individual all or a group grievance.
- 31.05 A Group/Policy grievance must be filed at Step 2 with the Human Resources Manager or designate within ten (10) calendar days after the date on which the circumstances giving rise to it became known or ought to have become known. Where the Employer files a Policy Grievance they must provide it to the Chairperson within ten (10) calendar days of the date on which the circumstances giving rise to it became known or ought to have become known.
- 31.06 Grievances involving Stage 2 or Stage 3 will begin at Step 2, discipline and terminations will begin at Step 3 and must be filed within five (5) calendar days of the issuance of discipline.
- 31.07 The Employer is committed to providing a response at each step of the grievance process, however where no response has been given by the Employer within the time limit specified, the grievance will be deemed to have been submitted to the next step within the requisite time frame.
- 31.08 A grievance which has been processed in the manner prescribed in this Agreement within the time limits prescribed, may be submitted to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of this Article provided written notice to arbitrate is given by the party seeking arbitration to the other party within thirty (30) calendar days after the decision is provided in Step 3. Where there is a basis for the request to extend time limits and where the request is made in writing (including by electronic mail) in advance of the expiry of the time limits, consent to a brief extension will not be unreasonably withheld.

Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection 48(16) of the Labour Relations Act, effective January 1, 2009, no Board of Arbitration shall have jurisdiction to hear any grievance which is not referred to arbitration within thirty (30) calendar days in strict compliance with the time limits in this Article. Failure to issue notice to arbitrate within this time limit will result in the grievance being deemed to have been abandoned.

- 31.09 If an authorized Union Representative should consider that a provision of this Agreement has been violated, he or she may initiate and sign a grievance on behalf of an individual, which shall be processed in accordance with the foregoing provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE 32 – ARBITRATION

32.01 The party wishing to submit a grievance to arbitration shall provide notice of intent to arbitrate. The parties agree to utilize a single arbitrator, unless otherwise agreed and will make efforts to select a mutually agreeable Arbitrator in a timely fashion.

The Arbitrator shall not be authorized to alter, modify or amend any part of the terms of this collective agreement, or to substitute any new provisions in lieu thereof, or to deal with any matter that is not a proper subject for grievance under the Collective Agreement, nor give any decision inconsistent with the terms and provisions of this Collective Agreement.

The parties will equally share the fees and expenses of the Arbitrator.

32.02 As an alternative to the regular arbitration procedure, the parties shall have the option of mutually agreeing to refer a grievance to mediation.

- (a) The Employer and Union may agree in writing to the appointment of a Mediator where the parties desire the expeditious means for the effective disposition of grievances which the parties have agreed may be handled in a summary manner.
- (b) In discussions with the parties, the Mediator will establish a meeting and a process for consulting on the case and providing an assessment to the parties. The purpose of the meeting is to clarify the issues or facts in dispute. The parties may make such further representations or adduce such evidence as the Mediator may permit or require, but the Mediator shall not be obligated to conform to the rules of evidence.
- (c) The parties shall supply the Mediator and each other with concise and brief written representations on which they intend to rely which will be exchanged not less than five (5) calendar days before the commencement of the hearings of the Mediator.
- (d) Where the parties agree in writing, a Mediator may be provided with the powers and limitations of an arbitrator as set out herein. In such a case, the decision of the Mediator shall only be applicable in the case in question and shall not constitute a precedent nor be used by either party as a precedent in future cases. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Agreement, the decision of the Mediator shall:
 - (i) be consistent with the provisions of this Agreement
 - (ii) be confined to the grievance referred to him or her

- 32.03 The Union and the Employer shall each be responsible for one-half (½) the expenses of any fees payable to the Mediator.
- 32.04 In this Article, it is understood and agreed that any employee (except the grievor) who is summoned or subpoenaed and whose attendance is required at arbitration hearings, and who provides five (5) calendar days of notice, shall receive permission to be absent from work without loss of pay. Call-ins to report an absence must be made by the employee no later than two (2) hours prior to the start of the employee's scheduled shift except where there are extenuating circumstances making such a call impossible.
- 34.02 Medical evidence may be required by the Employer outlining the prognosis and limitations, the expected date of return, the ability of the employee to perform any of his duties and/or to perform alternate duties. Such evidence will be required should an absence exceed three (3) days in duration and may otherwise be required where there is reasonable and understandable cause for concern.

This payment will be processed before the employee transfers into their new position.

Where such notification is practicable, the Employer will discuss the nature of the changes, the approximate number of employees likely to be affected by the technological or organizational change and the effect the technological or organizational change may have on the working conditions and conditions of employment of other employees. The Employer is open to receiving from the Union suggestions, ways and means that the Union considers might meet the business goals while minimizing the adverse effect upon employees concerned.

The Employer is committed to looking at reasonable training opportunities which can be utilized to move any affected employees to a new or different position with the bargaining unit at the Shorelines Casino Belleville. If the change permanently eliminates a classification, the Union and the Employer will review what training would be required to work in another, where there exists a need for employees.
